

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

JOHN GRANGER,

Plaintiff,

- against -

GILL ABSTRACT CORPORATION and NAN
GILL,

Defendants.

Civ. Action No. 07-CV-3491(PKC)

AFFIDAVIT OF DREW DISKIN

STATE OF NEW YORK)
)ss.:
COUNTY OF NEW YORK)

Drew Diskin, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am the managing member of Inertia, LLC ("Inertia"), located at 619 Charles Court, River Dale, N.J. 07675 and was Defendant Gill Abstract Corporation's website administrator from 2005 through to March 2006. Accordingly, I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein. I respectfully submit this affidavit in opposition to Plaintiff John Granger's ("Plaintiff" or "Granger") motion for summary judgment and in support of Defendant Nan Gill ("Gill") and Gill Abstract Corp.'s ("Abstract") (collectively "Defendants") cross motion for summary judgment.

2. In short, it is undisputable that Plaintiff's title insurance rate calculator (the "Rate Calculator") was removed from Abstract's website several months before June 30, 2006 registration was granted. Accordingly, Plaintiff's claims are all without merit, and Plaintiff's complaint must be stricken. At the very least, Plaintiff's damages if any must be limited to actual damages.

3. Inertia provides freelance administrative web services for the web, including Abstract's website.

4. Upon information and belief Abstract is a title company and is engaged in the business of providing a range of title services to the general public, including but not limited to, the sale of title and mortgage insurance. Abstract's website address is www.gillabstract.com (the "Website").

5. On or about February, 17 2006, I received a letter from Plaintiff dated February 13, 2006, claiming that the Rate Calculator on Abstract's website was copyrighted.

6. I immediately contacted Ms. Nan Gill of Gill Abstract received instructions to immediately remove the Rate Calculator from the Website. Accordingly, on or about February 21, 2006, I removed the Rate Calculator from the Website, a fact which I communicated by email to her. A copy of my email correspondence dated February 21, 2006 to Ms. Gill is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

7. I was also advised by Ms. Gill and Mr. Sal Cimaglia ("Mr. Cimaglia") of SK Consulting, that Mr. Cimaglia would be providing a new title insurance and mortgage rate calculator for the Website.

8. On or about February 21, 2006, I placed the new title insurance and mortgage rate calculator link provided by Mr. Cimaglia on Abstract's website. I checked Abstract's website myself and confirmed that the Rate Calculator had been removed and that it had been replaced with a new rate calculator.

9. I promptly ensured that the Rate Calculator was removed from the Website on February 21, 2006 (See correspondence attached hereto as Exhibit "A") and was replaced by another mortgage rate and title insurance calculator and confirmed that this was done as instructed without any contractual obligation to do so. This fact is also confirmed by the records of the internet archive "The Wayback Machine."

10. The Wayback Machine located on the world wide web at <http://www.archive.org/index.php> is a trusted and respected service that allows people to visit archived versions of web sites. Visitors to the Wayback Machine can type in a URL, select a date range, and then begin surfing on an archived version of the Web. Accordingly, using the Wayback Machine it is easy to prove the content of the Website before and after February 21, 2006.

11. Attached hereto as Exhibit "B" is a printout from the Wayback Machine illustrating all changes to the Website. As the court can see, the Wayback Machine documented that Gill Abstract's website was updated on or about March 5, 2006.¹

12. Attached hereto as Exhibit "C" is the archived image of the Website as of March 5, 2006. When one clicks on the link to the rate calculator on this March 5, 2006 date, or any other date thereafter, the website user is referred to the title insurance rate calculator provided by Mr. Cigmalia – NOT JOHN GRANGER'S TITLE INSURANCE RATE CALCULATOR.

13. Moreover, as stated above, there was no material belonging to John Granger on the Website at any time after the June 30 Registration Date.

¹ Since the WayBack Machine website does not update daily, even though the Website was updated on February 21, 2006, this change was not recorded until March 5, 2006 – a date well before John Granger's June 30, 2006 registration date.

14. Accordingly, it is undisputable that the Rate Calculator was removed from Abstract's website on or about February 21, 2006, or at the very latest on March 5, 2006. This fact is confirmed independently by the Wayback Machine. Certainly the Rate Calculator was removed from the Website well before June 30, 2006 the date of registration of the Rate Calculator.

WHEREFORE, I respectfully request that the Court deny Plaintiff's motion for summary judgment with prejudice, and grant Defendants' cross motion for summary judgment and grant Defendants the fees and costs associated with the defense of the instant motion for summary judgment.

Sworn to before me on this 18TH day of October 2007.

Nan,

Thanks for the e-mail. I received a cease-and-assist letter, too, in the mail. Needless to say, I was less than thrilled. I believe you may need to rethink some of your strategies for forms and such in this regard. In the meanwhile, I would suggest that you contact the person who sent the letter, apologize for not knowing it was proprietary, and let him know that you are rectifying the situation. This would help prevent them from blacklisting you with any associations or large industry groups. You never quite know who people know...

I am scheduled to close on my new home in VA this week. Once that is finished, and I am not living in a hotel (and commuting 600 miles every weekend) I will have more time to dedicate to your sites. Thank you for your understanding.

Respectfully,

Drew

Cheers.

Drew

Hi Yan..... oops....Nan

Good seeing you Friday

My programmer did save the web calculator we did a while back for you. It will be back up next Tuesday for you to look at. If you go to www accuratespda.com/gillabstract.swf you can see what it looks like. If you want to switch over to it, just give the link above to your web programmer and tell him to place it under the rate calculator button on the website. It will work immediately. I have requested Florida rates from one source and if you happen to find your rates, email them to me. I am looking into incorporating the standard rates, but not mortgage tax and transfer tax. The charge for setting up the website if you want to go with it is $799, then $35 a month for all updates and upgrades including any palm and pc programs you may have. If and when we do the florida rates, there would be a minor charge for installation. I also will send you a monthly printout on how many hits the rate calculator is getting from your customers and how many different customers are hitting.....

Take care

Talk to you soon
